Pence did. Word that he turned on America spread through the million plus sized crowd like wildfire. We as AMERICANS did that. Don't give Antifa fags that much credit. I was there. I did it. We PATRIOTS took the Capitol. Antifa hijacked the movement (classic move) as a way to make Patriots look bad.

Indeed. They treated us with total disrespect, as well as gaslighting, slandering and demonizing us. The media calls me a traitor, the left calls me a racist, and now the right calls me a thug.

Why? Because I stormed into the Capitol Building in full battle rattle to speak my mind.

Stop the steal!

Antifa didn't do that. We Patriots did. We were all at the White House Ellipse for the Trump Rally. Maybe 30 minutes to an hour after Trump finished, word spread through the crowd that Pence turned on us like wildfire. Then we took the Capitol. Sure Antifa tried to hijack our movement and destroy shit. They always do. It's their MO.

We made it into the Senate halls and were met with teargas and riot police. We never had a chance at getting into the chambers to speak (what we wanted).
